

More about Peter

Peter was born in Holland and as a child immigrated with his family to South Africa where he lived for forty years. He has a degree in mechanical engineering and worked in that field while having a lifelong interest in the flora and fauna of Africa as well as the sea life of the region. He is now an American citizen and resides in Illinois where he focuses on the wild life and birds of the region while continuing his interest in the animals of the African continent. Along with his darling wife, Andrea, he is proprietor & chef of the Wildhare Café.

---

2017 Annual Elkhart Historical Society Calendars

The 2017 calendars are available at both Horsefeathers and the Country Bumpkin in Elkhart, or can be mailed for a cost of $2. This year's calendar which is in full color, features the photography of Nancy Saul, whose career as a photo-journalist for the Lincoln Courier, is well known. She, though officially retired, is actively involved in one of Logan County's newest publications, "Bends and Byways" Magazine.

Calendars are free to all new and renewing members of the Elkhart Historical Society, at a rate of $15 for Seniors (family) or $20 for regular family. Be sure to get your copy of this beautiful calendar, which focuses on scenes primarily in the Elkhart area.